

Quiz

- Separate into groups of no more than three members.
- Locate ALL co-channel cells of cell A in the each of the provided regions.
 - When applicable, this should include co-channel cells in the first tier, second tier, third tier, etc.
 - As discussed in class, assume the counterclockwise turn.

Assume $N = 12$

$$i = \underline{2}, j = \underline{2}$$

Quiz

- Separate into groups of no more than three members.
- Locate ALL co-channel cells of cell A in the each of the provided regions.
 - When applicable, this should include co-channel cells in the first tier, second tier, third tier, etc.
 - As discussed in class, assume the counterclockwise turn.

Assume $N = 12$

$$i = \underline{2}, j = \underline{2}$$

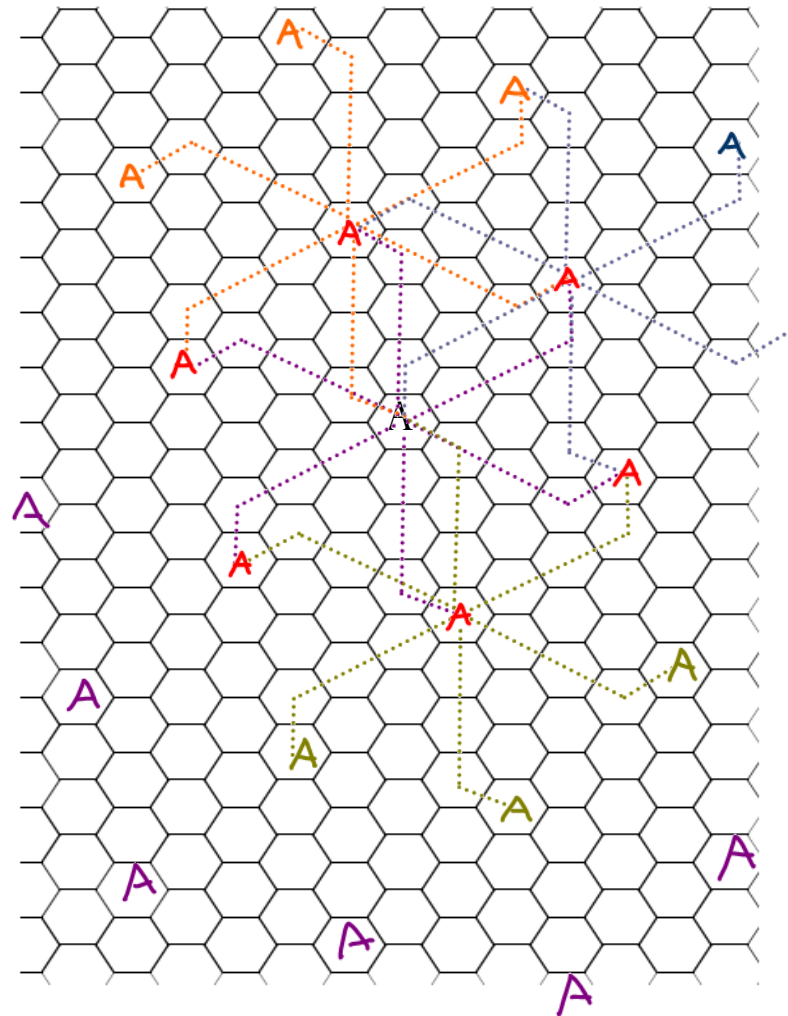

Quiz

- Separate into groups of no more than three members.
- Locate ALL co-channel cells of cell A in the each of the provided regions.
 - When applicable, this should include co-channel cells in the first tier, second tier, third tier, etc.
 - As discussed in class, assume the counterclockwise turn.

Assume $N = 13$

$$i = \underline{3}, j = \underline{1}$$

Quiz

- Separate into groups of no more than three members.
- Locate ALL co-channel cells of cell A in the each of the provided regions.
 - When applicable, this should include co-channel cells in the first tier, second tier, third tier, etc.
 - As discussed in class, assume the counterclockwise turn.

Assume $N = 13$

$$i = \underline{1}, j = \underline{3}$$

